

July 7, 2025

Graduate Appointment Agreement

The University of North Carolina at Charlotte

I. Employment Agreement

The University of North Carolina at Charlotte ("University") hereby appoints Yaswanth Gollapudi (801386686), ("Student") as a Teaching Assistant in the Bus Information Sys/Oper Mgt Department, for the period of 07/07/2025 - 08/09/2025 on the terms and conditions specified herein, and by choosing Accept Agreement and submitting the decision below, Student does hereby accept such appointment.

II. Salary Agreement and Contingencies

In exchange for satisfactory performance of all services to be provided by the Graduate Assistant under this appointment and contingent upon the continued availability of funds, the University will pay Student a total of $2,100.00, payable in equal installments on the 15th of the month and the last working or business day of each month. The date of the first payment is contingent on Student accepting the Agreement as indicated below, having current course registration and providing acceptable documentation of identity and eligibility to work in the United States consistent with federal and state government's regulations. This documentation must be provided on or prior to the first day of Student's employment with the University. Furthermore and notwithstanding Student's compliance with this requirement, Student's employment is also contingent upon confirmation of an acceptable work status by the E-Verify system as administered by the U.S. Department of Homeland Security and the U.S. Customs and Immigration Services. Student must remain eligible to live and work in the U.S. consistent with U.S. immigration and other laws. University has no obligation to sponsor Student for purposes of immigration or authorization to work in the U.S. Failure to meet any of these requirements will result in immediate termination of this appointment.

III. Employment Status

Graduate Assistant, temporary, part-time (unless this contract is for a Summer GA that may be 40 hours, which is full-time), 20 hours per week, Theophile Ndabu supervisor.

IV. Duties and Responsibilities

Failure to perform these duties and responsibilities in a timely and appropriate manner may lead to immediate termination of this Agreement.

V. Special Conditions

Student specifically agrees to the following terms and conditions of this appointment:

- a. Because of the nature of this appointment Graduate Assistants are not eligible for benefits offered by the State to employees and Student's employment is not subject to the North Carolina State Personnel Act.
- b. All Graduate Assistants are limited to employment not to exceed a total of twenty hours per week for all jobs, on or off campus, with the exception of summer hours which must be pre-approved by the Graduate School. Failure to abide by this restriction may result in the termination of this appointment.
- c. If for any reason Student is unable to, or otherwise does not, complete the term of appointment, compensation will be prorated on the basis of duties actually performed and the time worked.
- d. Student must enroll for a minimum of six graduate credit hours (or nine if receiving GASP) during each academic semester that this appointment is in effect and continuation of this appointment is contingent upon satisfactory performance in all courses and maintenance of a 3.0 Graduate GPA. Continuing students are eligible to hold summer appointments provided that the student is registered for the fall semester or concurrent summer session.
- e. Student also agrees to perform the duties and responsibilities set forth for the assistantship. For specific details regarding these duties and responsibilities, speak with the Graduate School or your supervisor.
- f. Student agrees to carry out all duties and responsibilities in compliance with all federal and state laws and regulations and with the provisions of the University's Policy Statements. Said policy statements include, but are not limited to, Policy Statement # 105 Code of Student Academic Integrity and Policy Statement # 104 Code of Student Responsibility. A violation of any law, regulation, or policy statement may result in termination of this Agreement. The University's policy statements are available online at <http://legal.charlotte.edu/policies>.
- g. Any academic dishonesty by students in any class for which Student is responsible must be handled in accordance with the provisions of the Code of Student Academic Integrity.
- h. If there are any responsibilities related to teaching other students, Student is required to participate in the Graduate School's Teaching Assistant Training. International students are also required to attend the Language Assessment program. Failure to attend the Teaching Assistant Training may lead to termination of this Agreement.

The Duties and Responsibilities of the position are listed below:
Summer II TA assisting with INFO 3130-081 (CRN 30147).

Acceptance by clicking the Accept button and submitting the decision below and further by Student's signature on the I-9 work authorization document verifies agreement with the terms and conditions set forth above and on Attachment A to this Agreement.

For the University,

William Tolone

Associate Provost And Dean Of The Graduate School